16th November 2015

Dear Nabeel

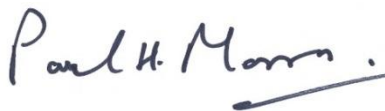

Following the atrocities in Paris last Friday I am sure that the Muslim community in Glasgow will be feeling a degree of unease and perhaps even a bit on edge.

On behalf of the Glasgow Jewish Community we offer our friendship and solidarity with our Muslim brothers and sisters at the Glasgow Central Mosque and in the greater Glasgow area.

It is those who undertook the atrocities who are responsible for these atrocities, and no one else. No community and no faith community can in any way be held responsible, and we are united together in solidarity and fraternity with each other.

I send our very warmest wishes at this time to the leadership and members of Glasgow Central Mosque and the Glasgow Muslim Community.

Yours sincerely

Paul H Morron
President
